FINANCES BRIGHTEN

Golden Stream From Europe Still Continues..

TOTAL ENGAGED $51,831,000

Week In the Financial District of New York Opened With a Cheerful Tone—Business Getting Normal.

New York, Nov. 12.—The week opened with a cheerful tone in the financial district. The two trust companies against which there had been severe runs were transacting business on a normal basis, receiving deposits and paying out money on checks as though nothing had ever happened out of the ordinary.

The flow of gold from Europe to the United States continues. The first engagements of the metal for import announced Monday were by the Mercantile Trust company of St. Louis for $500,000 and by the Illinois Trust and Savings bank of Chicago for $200,000. Both engagements were made in London. The St. Louis engagement is said to be the first instance in which a financial institution in that city has taken gold direct from London.

The total gold engaged since the beginning of the financial stringency is thus brought up to $51,831,810.

The United States secured practically all of the $3,000,000 gold offered in the London market Monday. There was little competition for Monday's offerings and the American bankers secured the precious metal at a price 5-8d. per pound sterling cheaper than the price of last week.

The stock market showed a steady tone during the early trading, considerable investment demand for stocks being reported by brokers.

STATEMENT ENORMOUS.

"Confederate Veteran" Will Make a Correction.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 12.—Mr. S. A. Cunningham, publisher of the Confederate Veteran, the official organ of the United Confederate Veterans' Association, stated in regard to the publication that General Grant, Admiral Faragut and General Thomas had applied to Jefferson Davis for commissions in the Confederate army, that at the time of the publication of Captain De Rossett's communication in the Veteran he had his misgivings as to the correctness of the statement, and that later investigation had convinced him it was erroneous

As a result of these investigations Mr. Cunningham announced that the December number of the Veteran would contain a correction.

WEDDING CANCELLED.

Chicago and Pittsburg Society Somewhat Disappointed.

Chicago, Nov. 12.—A wedding that was looked forward to with interest in Chicago and Pittsburg society was announced cancelled Sunday without any explanations, by the young woman's mother. The principals are Miss Isabel W. Pontefract, of Pittsburg, and John Cudahy, Jr., son of the Chicago packer.

Miss Pontefract's father was a merchant of Pittsburg, who left a large estate to his widow and daughter.

John Cuiahy, Jr., is 23 years old, and is working in the Louisville packing company's office—a plant controlled by his father.

The engagement was announced last summer. The acquaintance began at Mackinac Island, where the Cudahys have a summer home.

Jealousy Causes Tragedy.

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 12.—Returning home and finding no meal awaiting him, Fred Underhill secured his revolver and went to the home of William Nelson, where he found his wife and sister. Without a word he fired two bullets into his wife's head, killing her, and then turned the revolver upon his sister, Rachael Nelson, firing five shots into her body. She is expected to die. Underhill gave himself into custody. He was crazed with jealousy.

LEAPED TO DEATH IN TOMBS..

Romance That Began in Italy Ends in Suicide at New York.

New York, Nov. 12.—Giovani de Chicnicia, who, until he was compelled to choose between love and duty, was a lieutenant in the Italian army, committed suicide in the Tombs Sunday. His imprisonment had been brought about by his brother, Luigi, a banker of this city. The latter believed Giovani insane.

According to the police records, he fell in love in Italy, and, unable, as an army officer, to support his wife as he wished, deserted and sought his fortunes as a cowboy in the American west. The venture was not a success, and finally, leaving his wife in their new home, he came to New York to get a new start.

Again unsuccessful, and penniless, he asked financial aid of his brother. The meeting of the brothers was not amicable, and at a second interview Giovani was alleged to have peremptorially demanded first $1,000 and then $2,000 from the banker. He exhibited a revolver, and it was charged, threatened his brother's life.

The banker wished to have Giovani detained as insane, but the court would not entertain this charge, and the former soldier was held for trial on a charge of carrying concealed weapons.

In the Tombs Giovani became despondent, complained bitterly of former friends and constantly grieved for his girl wife he left alone in the west.

When the doors were opened to permit the prisoners to go to the yard for their daily exercise Sunday, Giovani, who occupied a cell on the third tier, stepped quickly out upon the balcony and then sprang upon the guard rail. He plunged headforemost to the stone flagging 25 feet below. Several hundred prison companions witnessed his death.

DOOM OF THE SKYSCRAPER.

New York Will Probably Limit Height of Modern Buildings.

New York, Nov. 12.—The doom of the modern skyscraper has probably been sounded in this city by drastic regulations which have been adopted unanimously by the building code commission. These regulations provide that after January 1, next, no new building shall be over 250 feet in height.

The new law is aimed to stop the feverish race for the construction of high buildings. That a limit must be fixed somewhere has been the advice of noted fire underwriting experts, for Chief Croker himself has sounded the warning. The fire insurance interests have feared that the forty-one story Singer building might be followed next by a fifty-story structure.

That the new regulation will be passed by the board of estimate and the aldermen before it finally becomes a law, is regarded as likely, since several of the city's best known builders who are members of the commission voted for it.

ALABAMA LEGISLATURE.

Railroad Bills Reported to Both Houses Favorably..

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 12.—The scheme of railroad bills, presented at the suggestion of Governor Comer, were all reported favorably in the two houses of the legislature Monday. They are in series, each house having the same, so that they may be rushed through. They reclassify the railroads, abandon the principle of commodity classification and are so arranged as to make it practically impossible for the railroads to have them enjoined.

There seems no reason to believe that they will not be through and signed by the end of the week. They provide for a five per cent increase over the old commodity rate bill.

Copper Pool Formed

New York, Nov. 12.—A pool in which the largest copper consumers of Europe are represented, says the Times Monday, was recently formed in London and has purchased 50,000 tons of copper. The copper is to be delivered in November and December. The amount involved is approximately $15,000,000, which is to be paid in London on delivery.

12,000 POUNDS GOLD

$3,000,000 Transferred to Chicago From N. Y. Subtreasury.

MADE UNDER POLICE GUARD

Tightness In the Money Market has Hit Saloons and Breweries of the "Windy City" in an Unexpected and Tender Spot.

Chicago, Nov. 12.—Acting under tegeraphic instructions from the treasury department in New York $3,000,000 in gold coin was transferred Monday from the subtreasury to the vaults of the First National bank. The transfer will be made under police guard. The weight of the gold to be moved is about 12,000 pounds.

The Illinois Trust and Savings bank expects to add $1,500,000 in gold to its currency store Tuesday. This is also a part of the shipment of gold received last week in New York from London. The question of clearing house checks, which are being demanded by all roads entering Chicago and by the Chicago Association of Commerce, representing Chicago merchants, probably will be taken up by the clearing house committee.

The engraving of these checks is completed and copies of the four denominations that may be issued will be shown to the members of the clearing house at once.

The present tightness in the money market has hit a number of saloons in the outlying districts in an unexpected and tender spot. For manay years it has been the custom of large concerns to pay their employees in checks. These checks the neighborhood saloons would cash for them, the breweries furnishing the money. The saloonkeeper got his profit out of the fact that the workman he obliged would naturally spend some of the money with him before going home, and the brewers gained by selling more beer to the saloon. But when the brewers sent to its bank the other day for a large amount of currency to meet this monthly call, its cashier was told the bank could not spare it. Other banks were as obdurate in meeting the demands of other breweries and the result was the saloon keepers did not have the money to cash the checks of their customers on pay day and lost trade in consequence.

WOMAN TELLS OF CRIME.

Negro Suitor for Her Hand Kills White Rival it is Said.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 12.—David Malloy, a negro thirty years old, is under arrest here in connection with the killing of a white man at Madison, N. C., over a year ago. The negroe's arrest was brought about by Freida Leferda, a white woman, who informed the local authorities that Malloy and the murdered man were suitors for her hand.

The men quaurreled one night at her father's house and Malloy, she alleges, killed his rival and escaped. She came to this city with Malloy, but recently he abused her and she told the police of the crime.

Cortelyou Extends Time.

New York, Nov. 12.—In view of the disturbed financial condition it is difficult for importers to get currency in time to meet their obligations to the government and Secretary Cortelyou has doubled the time permitted for the payment of customs duties, making it 96 hours. The law requires payment in gold coin, silver dollars, gold and silver certificates or treasury notes.

Snow in Colorado.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Nov. 12.—Most unseasonable weather has prevailed in this vicinity since Sunday morning. Two inches of snow fell Sunday and the temperature is ten degrees above zero. Snow and bitter cold weather is reported from the Cripple Creek district.

Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 11.—Nearly two inches of heavy snow fell here Monday. Street car traffic was delayed in some sections of the city.

EDITOR CONDEMNED TO DEATH

Death Threat Letter Sent by a Black Hand Society.

New York, Nov. 12.—A death threat letter, which was said to have been written by Russian Nationalists, has been received by Louis Miller, editor of the Jewish Newspaper Warheit. The editor has been condemned to death by the foreign society, it was said, because of several attacks on the Russian government by the newspaper.

The postmark on the envelope, which has a black border, is Geneva, Switzerland, and is dated October 31, 1907. The warning is signed by M. Feadtive, and explains that the Geneva department of the Union of Russian people, the black hand society, decided at its last meeting that the editor, who was known as M. Band while a revolutionist, be condemned to death for aiding the Terrorist organization and for printing documents of the government. Special agents have been delegated to carry out the threat and have left Moscow with 3,000 rubles to defray the expenses of the errand.

The notice disturbed the editor, who declared that he is sure an attempt will be made to assassinate him by the organization which is regarded as one of the most influential in Russia, and is the society which started the Jewish massacre last year. Mr. Miller informed the detective bureau and he will call on a private detective agency for additional protection.

"CAPTAIN'S TABLE" WILL CEASE.

One Feature of Transatlantic Travel to Become Thing of Past..

New York, Nov., 12.—A feature which dates back years, and one which travelers never dreamed would disappear from ocean liners, is about to pass away on the vessels of one great transatlantic line, at least. That feature is the captain's table.

All over the world, the determination to sit at the captain's right, or at his left, or if those coveted places were not available, to sit somewhere at tre same board with him during meals in the first salon has been the motive for almost infinite maneuvering with chief stewards on the part of the passengers.

After the first of January, the "Captain's table" will cease to be on the express steamers of the North-German Lloyd company. Small tables are to replace the time-honored long tables, including the ones over which the captains now preside. The reason for this change is that trans-Atlantic travel is on such a big and important scale now-a-days that the captain must be relieved from all unnecessary strain, even conversational. And, again, it is being found that where there are many first class passengers, indiscriminate association of passengers and officers is inconsistent with the latter's dignity, convenience and pleasure.

Graves Leaves Last of Week.

Atlanta, Nov. 12.—Colonel John Temple Graves, editor of the Georgian to whom a farewell banquet was given at the Kimball house Saturday night by F. L. Seely, will leave Atlanta the latter part of the week to take charge of his new duties with the Hearst papers in New York. "My present plan," said Mr. Graves last night, "is to leave Atlanta either Friday or Saturday. I may spend a day in Washington, but on this I am not certain."

Death was Accidental.

Thomasville, Ga., Nov. 12.—Thomas Mitchell, who was arrested Thursday charged with the murder of Thomas Foy, by pushing him from a third story window of the Stuart house, was released from custody at a committment trial here Saturday. The prosecution failed to make a showing and the evidence bore out the verdict of the coroner's jury that death was accidental.

Third Russian Parliament.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 12.—It was announced Monday that the third Russian parliament will assemble November 14 at the Tauride palace. An imperial decree was issued instructing that Golunboff, vice president of the council of the empire, to open the session. There will be no reception of deputies by the emperor at the winter palace.

MINER'S AWFUL FATE

Doomed to Starvation 800 Feet Below Earth's Surface.

BURIED IN DRAPER COLLIERY

In Darkness That Will Never Be Lifted, Though Alive and Unharmed Michael McCabe, a Miner, Awaits a Lingering Death.

Mahanoy City, Pa., Nov. 12.—Alive and unharmed, but in darkness that will never be lifted, Michael McCabe, a miner, is awaiting certain death by starvation, eight hundred feet below the surface of the earth in the Draper colliery, near here.

While McCabe was at work a blast threw down a mine pillars. He fled in one direction and got into a safe place. A fellow workman escaped in the opposite direction and got out of that wing of the mine before the roof caved in. The mine extends to the surface, which is sixty feet wide, right in front of McCabe's home, where his wife and six children vainly hope for his rescue.

Mine officials say it may be days before it will be possible to reach the place where the man is entombed.

FINANCIAL SKY CLEARER.

Only a Few Clouds Hanging Over the Horizon.

New York, Nov. 12.—The eventful week in the financial history of the present generation came to a close on Saturday with conditions much clearer than a week before but with some clouds still hanging over the financial horizon. The previous week had closed with the disquieting announcement that the New York reserves had lost $38,000,000 in cash in spite of deposits by the government during the week of nearly an equal sum representing a net cash loss of $60,000,000.

The bank statement of yesterday changes this situation. While it shows a nominal decrease in required reserves of $13,085,800, more than two-thirds of this decrease is due to the reserve requirements caused by the decrease in deposits because of the lending over of loans from the trust companies by the banks. Moreover, the actual cash loss of $4,314,000 is due to the system of averaging reserves for the entire week including seven days before the arrival of the $3,000,000. Unless demands from the country very heavy next week the arrival of additional gold will more than offset the loss of cash last week and make a creditable showing for reserves Saturday next.

OF NATIONAAL SIGNIFICANCE

Conference to be Held in New York for Welfare of the Poor.

New York, Nov. 12.—On the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the charity organization society of this city a conference of national significance will be held in Carnegie hall on November 19, 20, and 21. It is expected to bring together philanthropists and social workers from all parts of the country. The general theme of the meeting to be held will be the welfare of the poor.

Governor Hughes will be the principal speaker at the opening meeting and other persons of interest to the public will be present. The questions to be discussed will be the rapid increase in population, the tenement house problem, the increased cost of living and charity.

Broughton Dons War Bonnet.

Atlanta, Nov. 12.—Sunday large crowds greeted Dr. Broughton at the Tabernacle. He spoke for the second time since the fire in Atlanta at the recent Georgia state fair. While his sermon lacked none of the fire and vehemence of the former occasion, and no new names were injected into the charges, Dr. Broughton expressed himself in very emphatic language, when speaking of Major W. R. Joyner, and Mr. Cabaniss president of the Georgia state fair, and hurt his audiences on tip toe.

The second day of the week of prayer, which is being held in the lecture-room of the First Methodist church, proved a big success, and the workers feel greatly encouraged as the interest increases. UNIVERSITY VS. RIVERSIDE.

Interesting Game of Football Between Two Teams Next Saturday.

The University football team, which is so far the champion of the State, is practicing daily under direction of Coach Forsyth, who is regarded as one of the best in the South, preparatory to meeting the Riverside team in Jacksonville on Saturday afternoon. The University boys realize that in the Riverside team they have a hard proposition, and are preparing to meet it. Coach Forsyth has his men out regularly every day, and the confidence that the University will come out winner is general.

While Coach Forsyth and the University boys feel sure that they will be successful on this occasion, they realize that Coach Tommie Appleyard of the Riverside team is on to his job—and they feel that notwithstanding they have defeated the Columbias, the strongest team in Georgia, and Rollins of Winter Park, they have something on their hands at this game which they will have to work hard.

The University boys expect to leave Gainesville Saturday morning and are determined to be in good trim so an interesting contest is anticipated.

Cured of Bright's Disease.

Mr. Robert O. Burke, Elmora, N. Y. writes: "Before I started to use Foley's Kidney Cure I had to get up from twelve to twenty times a night, and I was all bloated up with dropsy and my eyesight was so impaired I could scarcely see one of my family across the room. I had given up hope of living, when a friend recommended Foley's Kidney Cure. One 50-cent bottle worked wonders and before I had taken the third bottle the dropsy had gone, as well as all other symptoms of Bright's disease. J. W. McCollum & Co.

FLA. ASSOCIATION IS AFTER THE RAILROADS

Demand That Florida Shippers Shall Have a Fair Rate.

FRANK WARNER IN WASHINGTON

President of the Newly Organized Association, With Other Officers and Members, Had a Conference With Attorneys of Both Sides.

F. D. Warner, president of the Florida Fruit and Vegetable Growers' Protective Association, and to whom is responsible the organization of this association in a large measure, has returned from Washington, where he went with other representatives of the association to be present at a conference between the attorney for the association and the attorney for the railroads in the matter of discrimination of rates on Florida products from shipping points in Florida, with reference to rates from California and other points on products of the same class.

It will be remembered that several months ago the Florida Fruit and Vegetable Growers' Protective Association was formed. It was formed because the fruit and vegetable growers of this State realized without the aid of glasses that they were being discriminated against by the various transportation companies, and the first action after their organization was to enter a protest against such discrimination, directed to the Interstate Commerce Commission at Washington, and citing many instances where the discrimination occurred. The result was that an order was made that the railroads should meet the question at a given date, but a conference was arranged between the attorney for the State Association and the attorney for the railroads, and this conference was held in Washington.

After the conference in regard to these rates, etc., the railroads asked for an extension of time to the 23d inst. for final answer as to whether they will concede to the demands of the Florida shippers, and if not the matter will be taken before the Interstate Commission.

THE CHANGE OF LIFE

Sensible Advice to Women from Mrs. Henry Lee, Mrs. Fred Certia and Mrs. Pinkham.

MRS HENRY LEE MRS. FRED CERTIA

Owing to modern methods of living not one woman in a thousand approaches this perfectly natural change without experiencing a train of very annoying and sometimes painful symptoms.

This is the most critical period of her whole existence and every woman who neglects the care of her health at this time invites disease and pain.

When her system is in a deranged condition or she is predisposed to apoplexy or congestion of any organ, the tendency is at this period likely to become active and with a host of nervous irritations make life a burden. At this time also cancers and tumors are more liable to form and begin their destructive work.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, melancholia, dread of impending evil, palpitation of the heart, irregularities, constipation and dizziness are promptly heeded by intelligent women who are approaching the period of life when this great change may be expected.

Mrs. Fred Certia, 1014 So. Lafayette Street, So. Bend, Ind., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the ideal medicine for women who are passing through Change of Life. For several months I suffered from extreme nervousness, headache and sleeplessness. I had no appetite and could not sleep. I had made up my mind there was no help for me until I began to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My bad symptoms ceased, and I passed safely through the danger period, built up my system and I am in excellent health. I consider Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound unsurpassed for women during this trying period of life."

Mrs. Henry Lee, 60 Winter Street, New Haven, Conn., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"After suffering untold misery for three years during Change of Life I heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I wrote you of my condition, and began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and followed your advice, and today I am well and happy. I can now walk anywhere and work as well as anyone, and for years previous I had tried but could not get around without help. I consider your medicine a sovereign balm for suffering women."

Women passing through this critical period should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If there is anything about your case you don't understand write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for advice. It is free and has guided thousands to health.

When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health, actually thousands of women, you cannot well say without trying it, "I do not believe it will help me." It is your duty to yourself and family to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

OUR WASHINGTON NEWS LETTER

Banks Now Doing What They Blamed Depositors For Doing.

HOARDING MILLIONS OF GOLD

Accident in Department of Agriculture Which Will be Felt by Farmers Generally—United States Now Second Naval Power.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 12.—Now that the worst of the financial panic is past, the banks appear to be doing just what they have been blaming their depositors for doing, namely, accumulating gold and keeping it out of circulation by looking it up. This matter has been brought to the attention of the Treasury Department and it may result in measures being taken to force the banks to make cash payments under penalty of having their deposits of Government money withdrawn. The whole trouble in the financial world has been a lack of confidence coupled with a lack of ready coin. Business has grown far beyond the possibility of the cash in hand going round. The result has been that checks, drafts, and securities of one sort and another have been substituted for actual cash. This was all right when they were backed by actual values in crops, manufactures, or manufacturing plants. The trouble came when some bank depositors got frightened and demanded immediate and actual money payments. Then it was found that many banks, while perfectly solvent, did not have coin enough for their immediate use. As soon as confidence was restored and the runs checked, everyone got along quite as well with paper credit as they would have with actual gold. The Government came to the rescue with about $25,000,000 of extra deposits in National banks and urged the banks to increase their note circulation to the legal limit. Gold has been imported and the supply of money thus augmented. But the Treasury is informed that the banks have gone to the other extreme and are locking up in their vaults all the money they can get hold of, and forcing their customers to do business with credit checks and similar fiat currency that may be deposited in their banks but not drawn against for actual cash. The Comptroller of the Currency has advised the withdrawal of Government funds from banks that are thus unfairly hoarding gold, and the chances are that this threat will be enough to make the banks loosen up.

The Treasury itself has taken a step of questionable expediency in refusing to make public any more national bank failures. This has always been a matter of legitimate information and such failures were posted daily in the Treasury Department for the benefit of newspaper correspondents and others interested. Information as to such failures was freely given out. It is claimed, however, that the publication of such news tends to destroy confidence, so this source of information has been closed. Of course the failures cannot be concealed and it merely means putting the newspaper correspondents to unnecessary expense and getting the news from unofficial instead of official sources. Such concealment is not in line with American methods and is calculated to do more harm than good.

An accident in the Department of Agriculture last week the effects of which will be felt by many farmers in all parts of the country. The seed testing warehouse of the department where the seeds were distributed each year was burned and the entire stock on hand was destroyed. The actual loss amounts to little, but the practical loss is much greater. Of course the seeds of many common varieties are on hand. There has been long and bitter discussion as to whether any good was done by the distribution of seeds through the members of Congress. In leaving this distribution out of the question there were many valuable varieties of seeds, the loss of which will be keenly felt. The department has been working for years on plant breeding much after the manner of breeding farm animals. There have been valuable strains of corn, wheat, and other staples produced that were in course of distribution to special experimenters and that were tending to largely increase these particular crops. The department also had produced very valuable strains of long staple upland cotton. There were many foreign seeds, drought-resisting varieties of alfalfa and the like, all of which were being put to excellent use. It is not believed that any of these strains were completely wiped out but was given a severe check by the fire, and it will take some time to get it into thorough working order again.

An interesting report has been issued by the Navy Department showing that the United States now stands second among the naval powers of the world in actual tonnage of warships. Its nearest competitor is France, and the leader of the list is Great Britain. A year ago France was a little ahead of the United States, but at present the tonnage of American warships is 611,619 and that of France 609,097. France will be ahead of us again in another year, for her building program contemplates the completion of warships amounting to 836,112 tons, while at the same period the United States will have only 771,758 tons. This does not include transports, colliers and repair ships, or convertible merchantmen under 1,000 tons, but does include torpedo boats, submarines and destroyers. Great Britain on the other hand has the present enormous tonnage of 1,633,116. This is owing to her traditional policy of the "two power standard." This means simply that she insists on keeping her naval strength up to that of her two nearest competitors. At present it will be seen that it is considerably in advance. Great Britain intends to keep it so, and no matter what building programs other countries may adopt she will always insist on laying down two ships for one.

For the first time in the history of the country West Point is finding difficulty in keeping up its cadet corps to the maximum strength. This was announced in a report just made by the superintendent of the academy to the War Department. There are now 72 vacancies in the corps. During the past year several of the cadets have resigned to accept positions in civil life. There has been even a larger retirement of officers from the active list for the same reason. This, coming with the difficulty in recruiting the enlisted strength makes the outlook for the army not at all encouraging. It probably will have the effect of hastening action on the increased army pay bills to be presented at the next session of Congress.

WHOLE FAMILY OF WHALES.

Seven in All Beached Themselves Near Tarpon Springs.

[St. Petersburg Times.]

Conductor Charles Lee, of the Atlantic Coast line, recounts a very strange incident and spectacle on the Gulf coast near Tarpon Springs of a part of which he was an eye witness. During the lay-over at Tarpon Springs Sunday Mr. Lee heard that some blackfish, the huge kind, of the whale family, had beached themselves near the sponge krawls at the mouth of the Anclote river, and he made up a launch party to go out and investigate. They found seven of the monsters all lying upon the beach with their heads landword, as regularly and evenly as if carefully placed by hands. Six of them were within a space of 200 feet and the other some 300 feet away. They were all about the same size, 15 to 20 feet in length, 7 feet in height and 4 or 5 feet "beam," and weighing probably 3,000 pounds each.

Mr. Lee states that it is said to be the habit of the whale family to come ashore to die, a matter that is new to us, but the circumstances can scarcely be accounted for in any way than by voluntary action. There was no storm nor unusual tide to drive them ashore and the exact similarity of their position was remarkable.

A Mr. Hall who has charge of the krawls said that they came up on the high tide Wednesday night and died as it left them Thursday. A large crowd later went out from Tarpon Springs to see the strange sight.

Mr. Lee made arrangements to have the head and backbone of the largest one prepared and sent to him, and they will be interesting additions to the various trophies of the deep owned in St. Petersburg.

MAKES LIFE MISERABLE.

Troubles That Keep Half the Gainesville Doctors Busy.

Half of the prescriptions the Gainesville doctors write are for troubles that result directly from a weakened stomach. Strengthen the stomach muscles, increase the secretion of gastric juices, and you will find that common afflictions—indigestion, with its headaches, dizziness, depression of spirits, spots before the eyes, nervousness, sleeplessness and general debility—have been overcome.

From now on build up the strength and health of the stomach with Mi-o-na tablets. You will soon find yourself strong and never know the meaning of indigestion.

If Mi-o-na did not have an unusually curative effect in stomach disorders, it could not be sold on the guarantee given by J. W. McCollum & Co. to refund the money unless it does all that is claimed for it. They give an absolute, unqualified guarantee with every 50-cent box of Mi-o-na that the money will be refunded unless the medicine cures. They take the whole risk, and you certainly can afford to get Mi-o-na from them on this plan.

Sweet Potatoes for Hogs

By John M. Scott.

Florida Agricultural Exp. Station.

In all feeding experiments it has been found that rations containing a high percentage of carbohydrates (fat and heat-producing material) do not give good returns in producing meat; but if sufficient protein (muscle and bone-producing material) is added, so as to give the animal a balanced ration (or one nearly balanced), the results are generally satisfactory. It makes little difference in what feeds the carbohydrates are furnished so long as the material is digestible. Since sweet potatoes are a crop easily grown, give good yields, are well adapted to the soils and climate of Florida, and contain a large percentage of carbohydrate, some notice should be taken of them, and they deserve to be studied in order to find out their value as a feed for pork production.

Bulletin No. 90 of this station gives the result of a number of feeding experiments with pigs, in which sweet potatoes were fed in different proportions. It has been pretty clearly demonstrated that sweet potatoes when fed alone are a poor feed for pork production. This is due to the fact that sweet potatoes contain such a large amount of carbohydrates, and such small percentage of protein. The results of these experiments may be summarized as follows:

In a feeding test lasting forty-two days, four pigs were fed on sweet potatoes only, during which time the pigs lost in weight instead of making a gain. The pigs in this test were rather small, averaging only twenty-two pounds. In another experiment with older pigs, averaging about one hundred pounds, the results were a little more favorable, yet the gains in weight were not large enough to make it a paying investment to feed sweet potatoes alone. When some other feed was used in combination with sweet potatoes, the results were quite different. In one test lasting for a period of twenty-eight days, pigs averaging about 150 pounds were fed sweet potatoes and shorts in the proportion of one part shorts to six parts sweet potatoes by weight. The pigs made good daily gains, giving the sweet potatoes a value of 50 cents per hundred (when pork was worth 5 cents per pound) for pork production.

This may perhaps seem to be a very small price for the farmer to receive for his sweet potatoes, but it certainly gives him an idea as to the feeding value of his potato crop. If the market price of potatoes should fall as low as 65 or 70 cents per hundred, it would be a question whether or not the farmer could best afford to put his crop on the market, or feed it to his hogs.

HUNTERS ARE RECKLESS.

One Farmer States They Tear Down Signs and Shoot Promiscuously.

Editor Sun: On the 9th inst. some hunters and a boy from Gainesville entered my field, tore off the signs which I had posted warning trespassers, and began making themselves at home. A friend of mine saw them and warned them but the only reply he got was a laugh.

This is to notify all parties that we of this section do not propose to be imposed upon in this manner, and if I can ascertain the names of those entering my field under the circumstances I will see what can be done with them by the law. We are all out here respecting and obeying the law, and we intend to enforce the law on those who trespass upon us. Again, the hunters are very reckless in handling their fire-pieces, as they do not seem to care which way they aim them. We do not come to Gainesville and hunt promiscuously around the town, and we do not propose to stand it out here, as our people and our property have as much right for protection. A FARMER.

Biliousness and Constipation.

DOGS WORRY MRS. MORGAN.

J. Pierpont Morgan and His Famous Collies Just to Please His Wife.

New York, Nov. 12.—According to a report here J. Pierpont Morgan has decided to give up his Craigston Kennell, at Highland Falls, N. J., and to part with his collection of high bred collies. It is said to be due to Mrs. Morgan's wishes. Mr. Morgan, the report has it, having given his wife the control of Highland Falls estate, she decided to spend most of the year there, but found the barking of the dogs and the flocking to the kennels of strangers too annoying.

It is further said that the financier would not sell his pets but turned them all over to Alfred Blewitt, manager of the kennels for the last five years. Mr. Morgan has a collection of collies and has spent hundreds of thousands of dollars on the Craigston kennels.

"MY!" SAYS ROOSEVELT.

The old saying that it makes some difference whose ox is gored has been changed in sound, but not in sense, by President Roosevelt in order to express his feelings in relation to the panic. When he heard of the failure of the great Westinghouse electrical concern, he exclaimed: "My! I didn't mean to hit them." This expression proves that the President meant to hit somebody and to spare somebody else, but that his strokes were so carelessly delivered that they hit his friends, as well as his foes.

His venom towards particular people caused him to be blind to all else. And it was the failure of the Westinghouse concern that precipitated the panic.

Possibly, the President intended to produce a panic in order that his good friends of the steel trust might break down and absorb the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company, and thus, by becoming a still greater monopoly, become a better trust than ever. It looks that way. It looks as if the President had been all along the tool of certain bear interests in Wall Street—as if he had been striving to depress certain lines of securities on the market until his friends had absorbed them at bottom prices, and so gained control of the properties represented by those securities. But his "bear policy" was not intended to hurt Westinghouse. Nor was it intended to hit any of those trust companies, banks, real estate companies, or other enterprises in which the numerous Roosevelts are interested. It looks, indeed, as if his bear policy had been aimed exclusively against independent industrial enterprises which were struggling with the trusts. The independents have been crippled by it, and have largely succumbed to the pressure brought to bear by the Morgan-Roosevelt financial interests. And since his object has been attained, the President seems to be satisfied.

He will now turn bull for a while. He will make friends of all those whom he has pretended to despise. The malefactors of great wealth, the criminal rich, the undesirable citizens, etc., will be forgiven, and will enter the kitchen cabinet. They have made millions out of this panic. They have gained the use of Government funds amounting to $215,000,000 while money was bringing from 30 to 50 per cent interest. They have crushed their competitors. They have won great victories, and are now "great captains of industry," again as they were in 1904. They may be relied upon to pile up a larger corruption fund next year than they did three years ago.

The only unfortunate incident of this glorious work of Roosevelt is, that somebody has been hit whom it was not intended to hit. But this is of little consequence so long as the good steel trust has profited, and the President, and his uncles, his brothers, sisters, cousins, and aunts have not been hurt.

If anybody complains, the President consoles him by explaining: "My! I didn't mean to hit you." And that apology satisfies the poor wreck of a grumbler.

CURE FOR DRINK HABIT.

The Fort Myers Press says: "Mrs. Alfred H. Shannon of Florida announces the discovery that oranges will cure the drink habit. Her first patient was a man who had for more than forty years been addicted to drink. Acting on her suggestion, he began each day by eating an orange as soon as he opened his eyes in the morning. Before going to breakfast he ate another, and followed that up with more fruit every time he felt a craving for a drink. He carried this treatment through for one month and at the end of that time had lost all desire for drink, but instead an orange at least three times a day had become necessary for his health and happiness. It is said to have been a woman who, years ago, made the discovery that anyone eating an orange every day in the year would never be troubled with rheumatism."

All the Congressmen so far heard from are opposed to an extraordinary session of Congress. If some of the small-fry Republicans could be sure of extra and regular mileage they would jump at the chance to favor the extra session.

The bankers seem to be wider apart on the question of calling an extra session of Congress to enact asset currency legislation than they are about just what the currency bill should provide for.

Determined to aid the Florida State Fair in every way possible, the Seaboard, Coast Line and other Florida railroads have already taken up the matter of promptly handling products for exhibition, which will be shipped to Tampa free of charge. The roads are determined that no delay whatever shall be experienced in shipping exhibits to and from Tampa, and will have their local agents force fair commissioners to promptly notify them when cars are needed for shipment. Particular attention will be paid in this regard to live stock and fowls, which will not necessarily be sent to the fair before February 13th.

Members of the New York Stock Exchange have a superstitious horror of "object lessons." By this term they mean exposures of actual transactions. Considering the life insurance disclosures and those of the Standard Oil and Harriman railway monopoly, the dread of object lessons seems to be well founded. Publicity, that President Roosevelt was once so keen for, he has since abandoned, although having a vast accumulation of facts and evidence about the wrong-doings of the corporations and trusts; and this secrecy in a great measure led to the recent panic.

Mr. John Temple Graves, the Southern editor now in charge of Hearst's papers, hints that he may make New York City "dry" in time. Impossible! How could dryness and Colonel dwell in the same town?

It is probable that with the present advance in road building before another political campaign arrives Standard oil will be utilized for laying dust rather than for raising it.

DEATH OF COL. J. H. ESTILL.

Editor of the Savannah Morning News and a Leading Georgian.

Savannah, Ga., Nov. 12.—John Holbrook Estill, proprietor of The Savannah Morning News, died of arterial scolerosis at his country home at Isle of Hope, near the city, at 10:15 o'clock Saturday night. Colonel Estill became ill last April. It was thought he could not then survive, but he exhibited marvelous recuperative powers for one of his age and recovered sufficiently to take a trip to Buffalo, N. Y., about the middle of July. There he remained for two months and returned greatly improved. But two weeks after his arrival here he suffered another seizure His condition since has been critical. A widow and five sons survive Colonel Estill.

Sketch of Colonel Estill.

John Holbrook Estill was a native of Charleston, S. C. He was of Huguenot descent, and was born October 28, 1840. He began life at the bottom of the ladder. Indomitable perseverance, steady application, rare executive ability and excellent judgment were features of his character.

He was one of a family of eleven children. His father was a book binder, bookseller and printer, and from his earliest years Colonel Estill had been in one way or another connected with the printing business.

In public office Colonel Estill was chairman of the state democratic executive committee, and in 1892 was the Georgia member of the democratic national committee, the only honor in national politics that he ever accepted. During President Cleveland's administration he was offered one of the most important consul-generalships but declined it. In 1902 he was a candidate for governor of Georgia, and made a most remarkable race against Hon. Joseph M. Terrell and Hon. Dupont Guerry, the prohibition candidate.

In 1906 he was again a candidate against Hon. Clark Howell, Hon. Hoke Smith, Hon. Richard Russell and Colonel James M. Smith, and pursued the same dignified course in what was probably the most interesting campaign in the annals of the state.

Always Was Sick.

When a man says he always was sick—troubled with a cough that lasted all winter—what would you think if he should say he never was sick since using Ballard's Horehound Syrup? Such a man exists. Mr. J. C. Clark, Denver, Colorado, writes: "For years I was troubled with a severe cough that would last all winter. This cough left me in a miserable condition. I tried Ballard's Horehound Syrup and have not had a sick day since. That's what it did for me." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Keeping constantly at it is the key to successful advertising.

You cannot spurt much and win. A business career that goes by fits and starts will not pay so well in the long run as a business that follows a course mapped out for it and keeps increasing its advertising as the business demands it until the maximum is reached. THAT MONEY FOUND IS STILL MISSING

Thomas Moses and Dinah Davis Still Behind Prison Bars.

MOSES FOUND THE MONEY

And Alleges He Turned it Over to the Woman, but Dinah Declares She Gave Back Every Cent Which the Man Gave Her—Case a Mystery.

The Sun contained mention on Sunday morning that Thomas Moses and Dinah Davis had been remanded to jail on account of their failure to turn over certain money, the balance of $31 which had been lost by a woman, the wife of Sampson Jones, at the Seaboard Air Line depot, and which had been found by Moses and turned over to the Davis woman. The case remains the same, as both are in jail under bond of $500 and $300 respectively, under the charge of attempting to defraud. There was only $159 recovered of the amount lost, the whole of which Moses admits to have found and turned over to the woman. Of this amount Moses gave up $90, which he swore was all he had, while the woman, who was found at her home, could only produce $69. There is a mystery surrounding this case which is bound to come out, as it is intimated that other parties are implicated. In the meantime Moses and the woman will remain in jail, but if the evidence is secured in the case of the third party he will suffer as much as the two combined.

Dinah Davis has given up every cent she has, so she said. Moses, who found the money, says he has given every dollar he had except about $10 he spent, but it seems that the two are trying to shield this third party who holds the balance.

Sampson Jones, to whom the money belonged, has been for years a hard-working employe of J. L. Medlin & Co., the naval stores operators at Meredith. He has been a steady, law-abiding negro, has kept his savings, and has been depositing his money in the bank here. Recently he decided to make a change, having had a better offer, and sent his wife to Gainesville with authority to draw the money. This she did, but instead of taking the care of it she should, apparently she was careless, and let it drop on the platform of the Seaboard as she was boarding the train. She did not miss the money until she was nearly home, when naturally she became alarmed—but it was too late.

"I have a great deal of confidence in women," remarked Jones, who is a rather intelligent negro, in speaking of the matter at the court house, "but I have made up my mind to this effect. They will do to trust a long while, but when you have a little money, take care of it yourself. They are always ready to spend it, but if you leave it in their care you may [illegible] again; at least, this is the case in my instance, and this is [illegible] that I have worked hard for, [illegible] laying up for three [illegible] denying myself in many instances the necessities of life, for [illegible] after a while to open a [illegible] somewhere and live [illegible]."

THE PERFECT WAY

If you suffer from backache, there is only one way to cure it.

The perfect way is to cure the kidneys.

A bad back means sick kidneys.

Neglect it, urinary troubles follow.

Doan's Kidney Pills are made for kidneys only.

S. B. Lemons, cigar maker, living at 1311 Ashlet street, Tampa, Fla., says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they cured me of backache and disorder of the kidneys. Two or three times on account of the pain in my back I was unable to work for several days. The secretions of the kidneys were in a very bad condition, dark in color, and if allowed to stand would become of the consistency of jelly. I tried various remedies, taking what seemed like gallons of medicine and I also put on plasters, but nothing helped me at all until I got Doan's Kidney Pills upon the advice of a friend of mine, and using them according to directions they cured me in a very short time."

JOHN STOCKTON FOR GOVERNOR

Makes Formal Announcement of His Candidacy.

FOR THIS HIGH POSITION

One of the Best Known Democratic Leaders in the State Will Serve the People if he Receives Nomination in Primary Next Year.

The Jacksonville Metropolis of November 11th says:

"John N. C. Stockton has yielded to the pressure brought to bear upon him from all sections of the State, and today decided to become a candidate for Governor of the State of Florida.

"Mr. Stockton has thousands of personal and political friends who will rally to his support, and even here in Jacksonville, as an indication of his strength, he already has scores of people who are supporting him for Governor, and who have heretofore opposed him politically.

"Mr. Stockton was seen today by a Metropolis reporter as soon as it was reported that he had decided to run for Governor, and when asked about the matter he said:

"'I have had the matter of becoming a candidate for the Governorship under consideration for some considerable time. I have been repeatedly, I might say, urged, in private letters written me by friends and people with whom I am not even personally acquainted to become a candidate for Governor, and I am informed by these friends that it is the wish of a great many people in each of the localities of Florida that I should enter the race.

"'I realize that the office of Governor is the highest in the gift of the people of Florida, and that the opportunities to do something for the benefit of the people of Florida are greater in that position than in any other office that a Florida man can occupy. It is very pleasing for a man to know that so many people of his native State express a desire that he should serve them, and I have concluded to serve the people of Florida if a majority of the Democratic voters so decide in the primaries to be held next year.'"

Dr. J. L. Kelley, who was called to Luray, S. C., a few days ago on account of the serious illness of his father, Captain G. H. Kelley, sends information that the condition of the patient is very poor. This is indeed sad news to the numerous friends of this aged gentleman in this section but it is hoped the next news will be encouraging.

Fletcher Cromwell Dead.

Robert Fletcher Cromwell, aged twenty-two, died at Candler, N. C., on Saturday morning, after an illness of several months, during which he suffered greatly. Deceased suffered from a complication of diseases. At his bedside was his devoted mother, Mrs. Dora T. Cromwell, who has been with him constantly.

Deceased was well known in this city, where he was reared and his death, while not unexpected, will come as a great shock to his many young friends. He was a young man of admirable traits and was very popular among those who knew him.

At his own request deceased was buried at Harmony church burying grounds, Candler, Rev. Mr. Keller officiating.

The Sun, with other friends, extends sincere sympathy to the mother and brother, William Cromwell, in their sad hour of bereavement.
